

December 1, 2019 – Romans 13:10-14 (NIV)

THEME: Who Are All The Saints?

“Love does no harm to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. And do this, (Love one another) understanding the present time. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature.”

When you go to bed, I would guess that you have Pajamas. Maybe you have them for comfort, or maybe for warmth.

When you wake up and get ready for the day, you put on other day clothes.

Warmer clothing and more layers in the winter. Summer type clothing when the temperatures warm up.

The Apostle Paul is writing to the congregation in Rome and is warning the Christians in Rome to not fall asleep spiritually.

Instead they need to stay alert and not fall into sin. Why does God through the Apostle Paul make this warning? Because each and every day we are one day closer to Judgment Day, and As believers, we are actually one day closer to heaven, every day because of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

By the Grace of God, through faith in Christ, we are clothed with the Righteousness of Jesus Christ, and we are thus covered with His holiness and perfection, and we too are saints.
